Ladies Ministry

Tuesday 22 of our ladies met for prayer, fellowship meal and project planning at the home of Terre Farris. (thank you Terre!) We shared our thoughts and ideas as the behind the scenes organization begins for outreach efforts during the holidays. We appreciate our coordinators for taking a lead role and most especially, we thank our OH family for always being there to help us glorify God in our service.

When: Nov. 3rd
Where: home of Terre Farris
Time: 5:30pm
Prayer Focus: "Thanksgiving"

"ENCOURAGEMENT, CHAMPIONSHIP AND VICTORY AT OAK HILL!"

Hello to the church family! Congratulations! Putting up with me as your preacher for five & a half months, WOW! As my incredible wife would tell you, "that's no small accomplishment." (ha) But seriously, with how you've welcomed us into your lives, it means more to us than a mere 'THANK YOU' can ever tell. I am excited for the bond we now share to only strengthen as our relationship grows. We believe in being vessels of encouragement. And through our fellowship, you have certainly been that to us!

It's a tremendous blessing to be a part of a congregation that has SO MANY great ministries, missions, projects, etc. to support and participate in. We are also thrilled with the benevolent passion this congregation possesses to always seek new ways to be more effective in all service and outreach.

While the past 5 months have been FILLED with memorable works and spiritual victories, time marches on. Let me encourage you to continue giving God your best! We rejoice in the past, celebrate in the moment, but always yearn for the future. Christ wants us to reach a new level of spiritual abundance as we pursue holiness. (John 10:10) I hope these words will help deepen your devotion and enhance your zeal to live as a continual success in God's eyes as we serve the Lord at Oak Hill.

BEING AN ENCOURAGER. Mark Twain said, "I can live a full two months on a good compliment." Wanting to be lifted is a natural desire! (2 Cor. 1:3, 1 Thess. 5:11) But this doesn't just happen, nor is it a work that should always be left up to another. It's OUR ROLE TOO. It takes work, love and compassion to elevate someone high through words and actions. Think of all the opportunities still within this month to both lift-up & be uplifted as you enjoy genuine fellowship & spiritual worship with your siblings in Christ.

THE HEART OF A CHAMPION. God's people are champions because they let God do the training and guiding. There is coming a day when the crown will be placed upon our heads for successfully running the race! (Rev. 2:20) It is the crown of championship that is given because VICTORY was the mindset even before the race was completed. God's champions remind themselves that even when the odds are stacked against us, we are yet "more than conquerors through Him...." (Rom. 8:37)

PRESS ON TOWARDS FUTURE VICTORIES. Even Paul didn't allow himself to be gripped with regret from a painful past. In Philippians 3:12-14, Paul says he would not allow the failures of his past to destroy the good things he could accomplish in his present state. He also would not allow the past stand between him and the goal. What was Paul's secret? He learned the value of "Newness" in Christ. (2 Cor. 5:17) He continually replaced all negative attitudes, inhibiting emotions and carnal thoughts with eternally empowering and positive ones. May our minds be on the victories promised and the crown of life we have been guaranteed.

May our Great God continue to watch over and care for the Oak Hill congregation as we each more fully adopt the mindset of a faithful servant. "What Can I Do & Say To Edify Saints Along the Way And Bring God Glory Today?" Keep praying for great things to continue to happen here and be a fellow-partaker of each of them.
