ATTITUDE OF GRATITUDE

Dear OHYG,
We had “an attitude of gratitude” last Sunday when each of us received a visit at home Sunday afternoon! Each elder received a visit and gift bag full of cards from members of our OHYG and from Andrew. At the very least we were overwhelmed and very appreciative. Thank you OHYG. We appreciate all you do as part of the body at Oak Hill. The Elders

Dear Brothers & Sisters, Thank you for the 3 sewing machines for the girls Rainbow Village! Garry reached Rainbow 2 days ago and the girls/ladies are so excited and eager to start using the machines. These particular machines are very durable and will be a blessing for years to come. God Bless you all!
Garry & Cindy Jones

Blessed to Be A Blessing

In 2014 our love & service project for Christmas revealed an “Extreme Make-Over” for cottages at Raintree Village Children’s Home in Valdosta. This was so awesome!!! We had so much fun. Do you remember?? This year, 2015, our Oak Hill Family hopes to bring joy to the residents at Rainbow Omega. Currently, our congregation gives $200 monthly to Rainbow Omega. The name means "hope in the end" and is derived from the Biblical references to the rainbow (which stands for hope) and Omega (the last letter of the Greek alphabet). The vision of the founders was to provide a sheltered community for adults with developmental disabilities. Their purpose is to glorify God by ensuring that adults with developmental disabilities have a permanent and safe home where their abilities and potentials are respected and nurtured in a Christian environment. Ken & Peri Jones have agreed to coordinate our Christmas project again this year. Sorry guys, no Black Friday shopping required!!! The focus will be to collect funds to purchase gift cards for the residents. Rainbow will take the residents on an outing and let them enjoy the festivities and a day of Christmas shopping. The office staff and others will be going to Rainbow on Dec. 17th and would like to deliver the gift cards on that day. Please give your donation to Ken or Peri Jones — Carolyn Hensley — Glenda Liddle. Deadline for donations is Wednesday, December 16th. Thank you for all the joy your love for Christ brings to others!

Coat/Blanket Drive-Robin Bennett

Please go through your closets and bring your coats/blankets and place on the tables in the back of the Family Room. We will be collecting between November 29th—December 13th.

Ladies Ministry project for the holidays- As we look at our Father’s love for us and the love that took our Savior to the cross, may our Oak Hill family stir one another up to love and good works.
