Thomas' Song

Ken Young

Jesus, You were all to me, Why did You die on Calvary? O Lamb of God I fail to see How this could be part of the plan. They say that You're alive again, But I saw death and ev'ry sin Reach out to claim their darkest win. How could this be part of the plan?

If I could only hold your hand, And touch the scars Where nails were driven. I would need to feel Your side Where holy flesh by spear was riven Then I'd believe, only then I'd believe Your cruel death was part of the heavenly plan.

Holy presence, holy face; A vision filling time and space. Your nearness makes my spirit race. Could this be part of the plan. I see the wounds that caused the cry, From heaven, ocean, earth, and sky; Where people watched their Savior die. Could this be part of the plan?

Reaching out to hold Your hand, And touch the scars where nails were driven; Coming near I feel Your side Where holy flesh by spear was riven. Now I believe. Jesus, now I believe. Your cruel death was part of a heavenly plan.

I proudly say with blazon cry. "You are my Lord and my God."

John 20:25-28 (NIV)

25 So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail marks in his hands and put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

26 A week later his disciples were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" 27 Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here; see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it into my side. Stop doubting and believe." 28 Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"
